Dear Mr. Knight,

You were recommended to me by *****.

I am looking for an independent legal professional to unobtrusively help me find out what is going on, in what appears to be an inequitable situation, involving my late mother's estate as well as extensive underhand harassment, and defamation of my character.

I can provide you with extensive evidence, but for now just give you a brief outline to see if you would be willing and able to assist in these matters.

1. My mother developed Alzheimer disease and my siblings then got her to sign an enduring power of attorney in 2001. They abused that to transfer about $4 million dollars worth of her assets to their own names on pretext of "administrating" on her behalf. After her death in 2010, they claimed these had been "gifts".
2. They hired an "estate" lawyer to ostensibly apply for probate, but he refused to communicate with me and misdirected the lawyers I did hire. Eventually I filed a complaint of him "acting in conflict of interest" as I am a beneficiary and also nominated in my mother's Will as one of the trustees for the estate, so he should have respected my interests too.
3. Thus it came to light they had been looking for ways to excuse inequitable distributions of estate assets, as well as to dismiss the "debts to the estate" mentioned in the Will. They also were refusing to apply for probate on the pretext that the Will appointed trustees rather than executors.
4. Mysteriously the Law Society and the LCRO too, eventually dismissed my complaint and in fact then acted to deny me all further legal advice what-so-ever. There is now also evidence that shows my siblings were involved in a protracted smear campaign to discredit me.
5. Now it looks like an "adviser" at the Wellington High court has taken the liberty of rubber stamping an application for letters of administration, probably in favor of the two siblings who by their own admission had grabbed all mum's assets in the first place, but nobody yet has been willing to share the details with me.

Please can you let me know at your earliest convenience if you feel you would be able to help me establish exactly what has gone on here, and advise on appropriate legal recourse.

Yours sincerely,

Ms. F.A. Perduta
